Professional background

Professional background relevant to GEOSNet:

Civil Engineer (1992), Master (1994) and Ph.D.(2000) in Geotechnical Engineering, Sabbatical time at University of British Columbia – Canada (2005-2006), Adjunct Professor at Federal University of Paraná since 1995. Now, I am coordinator of research projects involving dam safety (Geotechnical and Structural Monitoring of Dams) and landslide risk in oil duct lines, both with financial aid of Brazilian Government Agencies.

Main reasons for your interest in GEOSNet and potential contributions to the network:

Discuss relevant themes in Geotechnical Safety, specially related to dams and slopes; know about relevant events and publications.
